

REFORM OF PRIMARY

ASSEMBLYMAN J. R. WHITE MAY INTRODUCE BILL FOR PUR-POSE DURING SESSION

Assemblyman John Robert White of this city, who represents this district in the California legislature now meeting at Sacramento, has been joined by his fifteen-year-old son, John Robert, Jr., who will be with his father during the session.

It will be of interest to his constituents to know that the first chairmanship of a standing committee bestowed in the Legislature went to our townsman.

They will also read with interest the announcement that he is expecting to present a bill before the session adjourns tending to restore, in a measure, the party convention, at the same time safeguarding against the old-time ring politics. When interviewed in regard to the matter he is reported to have said:

"The expense of two campaigns is too heavy," says White. "We must do something to make the burden on candidates much lighter. I believe a plan of convention for candidates should be worked out. Then by putting the primaries later, the expense would be made more bearable.

"Another thing that must be done, is to stop a candidate from running on more than one ticket. A candidate is a Republican, a Democrat or a member of some other party. He cannot belong to all of them."

Relative to the "economy" program which Assemblyman White laid out for himself as one of the big planks in his platform, he says:

"The Governor has taken a lot of wind from my sails by the appointment of his Efficiency and Economy Commission, but I will support it just as far as it tends to a better and more economical government."

DEATH OF J. M. WHELCHER

Mr. J. M. Whelchel, of 210 Elk avenue (Seventh St.), aged 62, passed away at the Clara Barton Hospital on Sunday morning last. For a number of years he had been a constant sufferer from bladder ailment but the real cause of his illness was not known until he was operated on in the hospital when it was discovered to be malignant cancer of the bladder, together with dropsy.

Last November Mr. Whelchel moved to Glendale with his family, from Santa Susana, Simi Valley, Ventura Co., for the benefit of his health, but it was impossible to rally on account of the severe nature of his malady.

Mr. Whelchel was born in Illinois. Migrating to California about 10 years ago he settled in the beautiful Simi Valley at Santa Susana, where he became a successful rancher. In his departure he leaves a widow and eight children to mourn the loss of a kindly, devoted, and indulgent father.

The funeral services are in charge of the Washington Undertaking Co. of Los Angeles and the Rev. R. W. Mottern, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Glendale. The funeral party left Mr. Whelchel's late residence in Glendale at 7:45 this morning and conveyed the body to the Simi Valley Cemetery for interment in the family plot.

NEW YEAR RECKONING

REV. W. W. COOKMAN OF WEST
GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH RE-MINDS OF OBLIGATIONS

In a recent sermon appropriate to the New Year and its outlook, Rev. W. W. Cookman, of the West Glendale M. E. Church, had the following to say concerning the reckoning which every soul should make with its God, preaching from the text: "How Much Owest Thou Unto My Lord?" Luke XVI-5. He said in part:

"You are all doubtless familiar with the custom which obtains among business men of arranging and settling their accounts at this time of the year. Bills are prepared and dispatched to their debtors with a request for prompt attention. All parties are prepared to enter upon the new year with redoubled energy and a more confident hope of success.

Today I present for settlement different accounts which the author of all good has against you. How much owest thou unto my Lord?

Let us consider first national mercies. Think of our wonderful life saving products and the rich resources of our beloved country! We have had not only enough physical comforts for ourselves, but by husbanding our resources we have sent thousands of tons of food to our allies.

LIBRARY PLANS

LIBRARIAN PROMISES A BOOK REVIEW HOUR ONCE A WEEK

Mrs. Danford, City Librarian, states that this is the busy season for her and her assistants. After the Christmas holidays the public seems to feel it has more time for reading, and this particular year the juvenile readers who patronize the children's department are coming to the library in numbers because the closing of the schools has given them more chance to enjoy books and magazines. For these reasons at the regular meeting of the Library Board, held Tuesday evening, a decision was reached to order more books.

The transactions of the Board were largely routine work, but some readjustments were made for the betterment of the service. Mrs. Wesley Bullis, the new secretary of the Board, is taking a keen interest in the work of the main and branch libraries and entering enthusiastically into plans for their improvement.

One of the projects which Mrs. Danford has for the new year is to devote an hour to reviews of new books at least once a week. In this hour the aim will be to give the substance of a variety of new books so that patrons will have an idea of what they are getting when they take them out and not waste time with those which are not to their liking. The hour set at this writing is 1:30 p. m. Tuesdays and it will be free to all who care to drop in and listen. There will also be book reviews at the branch library at Brand and Los Feliz Road, but the time has not yet been set. But readers in that district will be welcome at the Harvard street library and can take out cards there as well as at the Branch. If the interest warrants, the reviews may be held twice a week. The librarian feels that it will be an opportunity.

NIGGER IN THE WOODPILE

A citizen of Glendale recently wrote to the Telephone Company in regard to rates that he might have a black and white record. In the reply which he has received his present telephone rate is fully itemized, but the toll service—quite the most important feature and the reason for the communication to Mr. Mason—is referred to in the following ambiguous, indefinite and strange manner:

"As to your reference to the toll charge: Upon consolidation of the two telephone systems in Glendale on February 1st, our standard toll charges will be put into effect from Glendale to other cities, the proper authority having been secured."

What are "our standard toll charges?" "Who are the 'proper authorities,'" and were they "secured" as indicated in the above quotation with the full knowledge of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale who have reserved to themselves the right to give consideration to toll changes as indicated in Section 11 of the franchise which was received by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company and for which they gave bond February 10, 1913?

There is a nigger in the woodpile and Mr. Mason dare not come out in the open and show his nigger.

GOOD NEWS FROM CORPORAL ESTERLY

A letter has been received from Corporal W. W. Esterly, who is still in New York, reporting that he is getting along nicely and hopes soon to be traveling towards home and able to walk on two good, sound legs. He tells of a pleasant theater party given him and nine of his army associates by Mrs. Bowman, wife of a big theatrical manager in New York and encloses a copy of the program, a musical comedy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Esterly and their daughter are suffering from attacks of the influenza, though Helen and her father are convalescing and able to sit up a little. Emma Esterly is the only one of the family able to be about.

WANT TO COME HOME

The last letter received by Mrs. A. W. Teel, of this city, from her husband, Captain Teel, in the medical service of the U. S. Army, was written at Base Hospital 47 at Baune, France, where he was recuperating from influenza. The only comment the letter contained on his prospects of returning was that he did not believe any of them would know what they could do until a treaty of peace was signed. He is now censor of the unit and wrote that all the letters which pass through his hands indicate that all the boys want to go home.

WILSON TO APPEAL TO PEOPLE

PRESIDENT SAID TO BE PLANNING TOUR OF U. S. TO URGE RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY, IGNORING CONGRESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, Jan. 14.—President Wilson is expected to tour the United States immediately following the conclusion of the peace conference, to urge the ratification of the peace treaty in a series of speeches to the people of the country. He will break all precedents by putting the verdict up to public opinion instead of to Congress. His friends say that at the same time he will urge new domestic policies to meet the changes in the international situation.

The peace treaty, it is said, will strongly influence President Wilson's domestic policies, especially those having to do with trade relations.

A. work in France and Italy among the boys and will speak from personal experience. The meeting will be open to all who wish to hear Dr. Smith at 7:30 p. m., whether they attend the banquet or not. DRIVE WORKERS

MEN AND WOMEN WHO HAVE VOLUNTEERED TO CANVAAS
IN ARMENIAN RELIEF DRIVE

Today, Tuesday, is the last of the Honor Days for the Armenian-Syrian Relief Drive, and that none may be left out who desire to be enrolled as volunteer contributors, the headquarters at 117 South Brand boulevard in the Parker Furniture Store, will be open this evening to receive by telephone (Glendale 40) the subscriptions of any who have been delayed in entering their names.

Tomorrow, Wednesday, is the great drive when an effort will be made in a one-day intensive campaign, to cover the entire Glendale field. The middle of the week was chosen for this drive with the thought in mind that it might not be possible to go over the whole territory and time should be allowed to finish up, should that prove to be the case. However, the effort will be made, as stated.

The Drive Committee, which consists of Messrs. Charles H. Scott, Richardson D. White and Charles W. Ingledue, has been much gratified at the response to the call for workers in the drive. There have been many volunteers but 50 more must enroll if the committee is to be adequately equipped to meet the task. All who are willing to give service in this way are requested to call the headquarters at 117 South Brand, or telephone Gl. 40, or failing that to come to Red Cross headquarters over the Bank of Glendale on Brand Wednesday morning to receive literature and assignments to territory.

Mrs. W. L. Andrews will present the appeal for subscriptions and workers at the Tuesday Afternoon Club this afternoon where she will also take subscriptions.

Rev. Charles Scott tenders the following list of workers already secured for the Wednesday Drive:

CALIFORNIA SOLDIERS, SAILORS, AND MARINES EXEMPT FROM TAXATION

Every tax assessor and collector in California has been warned by their Congressmen that Section One and One-Quarter of the California constitution requires every soldier, sailor, or marine, who served during the war with Germany to be exempted from city, county and state taxes on all his property to the assessed value of $1,000. This provision includes participants in all wars. As property is assessed at about one-third of its value in California, the law exempts from tax payment three thousand dollar homes or other property of that aggregate value. If the soldier does not own that much property, so much of his wife's property is also exempt to make up the total exemption. The widow of a soldier, or if there is no widow the widowed mother of the soldier is granted the exemption, and all pensioned widows, fathers and mothers are exempt from taxation under this law.

MENACE OF BOLSHIEVISM IN UNITED STATES

SENATORS BORAH AND KENYON DECLARE IT IS SPREADING IN UNITED STATES AND MUST BE STOPPED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, Jan. 14.—Senators Borah and Kenyon today warned political leaders that unless the present parties face and solve the problems of reconstruction there will be a new alignment, sweeping aside existing parties.

Kenyon declared that persons who blind themselves to the menace of Bolshevism are courting disaster. He said that Bolshevism is spreading in the United States, that the workers fear it, and that something must be done immediately to stop it.

Certain influential persons in both parties, his statement declared, are advocating recognition of the rights of workers as never before recognized.

Senator Kenyon advocated the elimination of unemployment through a broad program of public improvements; the creation of a national employment bureau; the financing of the building of workers' homes on lines similar to that of the farm loan bank; vocational training for everyone; the extension of soldiers' and sailors' insurance to industry; the establishment of old-age, sickness and disability insurance; the organization of courts for mediation in labor disputes, the mediation to be voluntary.

BUENOS AIRES SITUATION CRITICAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Jan. 14.—President Irogoyen's action in calling the military class of 1897 back to duty, and asking Congress to declare a state of siege, is regarded in some quarters as a move to forestall an anti-radical resolution, which many believe is imminent.

LIVEST GANG ON FRONT

ROBERT ROWLEY TELLS OF
THANKSGIVING AND DOINGS OF HIS UNIT IN ITALY

"Tai, Italy,

"Nov. 28, 1918.

"Dear Dad:—

"I guess you can see by the date that this letter was written on the big day, this year. We had our big feast about 5 and it is now about 7 and I am able to sit up a little so will try to tell you a little of what is going on here.

"We have our section split now so as to be close to the work. One-half is back in Vittorio and eleven of us are at Tai under the top sergeant. I told you of our house where we were at Valle, but we moved two days ago down to Tai where we have a barn for the cars and we live in the house formerly occupied by the Sanitary Director of the Eighth Army, for whom we work.

"We had our first snow here about a week ago so it came in time for Thanksgiving and we have a little on the ground now.

"I went to Padua day before yesterday and got the pumpkins and some vegetables for our feast. It is only about 225 miles and it took two days although I set up a few records for an ambulance on the way. I also had an Italian captain from headquarters who had to go on business.

"We had two turkeys for 12 of us and they were cooked fine, with dressing and gravy. (Our regular cooks are back in Vittorio, so two of the boys did the honors). We also had celery, home-made doughnuts, pumpkin pie, dried figs, nuts, coffee and white bread. Oh yes, they had some strega for those that cared to partake. Liquor in all forms is plentiful in Italy, but it is away up in price and scarce where we are. The Italians have a regular issue of red wine which is the same as our dago red. I have never acquired a longing for any of it, but the wops use it instead of coffee.

"But to tell of our day, the only thing that we missed was the folks at home. (I saw the first American lady in five or six months when I was in Padua, oh yes, and the nurses at Vicenza).

"I drove up to Cortina the other morning in a little snowfall and as it had snowed all night everything was covered with snow and I was the first machine over the road. The road runs along the side of the mountain with lots of curves and a two, three or four hundred foot-fall over the side in many places. It is rather a nice trip when the road is slippery. "The people up here in the mountains are very hard up for food and the government don't seem to worry much about taking care of them.

"The roads are or were in an awful shape in some places as the Austrians did not have rubber enough to make electrical goods, even, so they put iron bands on their autos and trucks. One of the boys said they had ten or twelve men to every kilometer of road here in the mountains so they kept them up pretty good. The Italians work soldiers unfit for military duties and women and children on the roads. I have seen girls 10 and 11 cracking rocks in the snow or filling holes in the road. They do all the road work by hand and the worst roads they are completely recovering with rocks cracked by hand. Before the rock is packed it is worse than the rock on the good roads at home. We have one stretch between here and Vittorio, about 10 miles, that is being covered with this rock and we cut up tires on it every trip.

"Our Y. M. C. A. ambulances are sure built for the work and I wouldn't have believed that they or any other truck would stand up under the work they get. I have run my car about 3,000 miles without a bit of trouble.

"We are due in a few days for our service stripes, Italian service ribbon, and have a campaign ribbon coming, I think, from the U. S. Army.

"I have two Austrian guns, helmets, machine gun, belts filled with cartridges, assortment of knives and bayonets, medals, and a lot of other junk that fills a barracks bag. I am still collecting.

"I can talk enough ways to get along, but never study much as there is too much to do.

"We get good eats and can buy candy, etc., from our commissary at U. S. wholesale prices.

"The bunch I am with is up to crazy stunts day and night so that things are never quiet. I guess we have about the livest gang on the front.

"They told us the censor stuff was all off so I can write most anything. It is too much to write about what we have seen, so will have to tell it to you later.

"I got seven letters last mail and we get two mails a week so you can

Personals

Walter Pettit, of 127 S. Kenwood St., is recovering from a light case of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll and their two sons spent the week-end at the Arlington in Santa Barbara returning Sunday night.

C. H. Thompson, of 348 Milford street, has been called to Eugene, Oregon, by the serious illness of his mother. She is quite elderly and has been in frail health for several years.

Mrs. W. L. Andrews, of Pioneer Drive, was a guest at a luncheon, given last week by Mrs. Gilb. of Los Angeles, formerly of this city, at which ten or twelve ladies were entertained.

Mrs. Cotton, of San Rafael street, has heard recently from her husband, John Cotton, now in Y. M. C. A. work in France, who was teaching English at Joigny. He did not know how long he would be detained there.

Influenza has made its way into the home of Mrs. Clara Hamilton of Acacia avenue. She and her daughters, Gladys and Essie, are down with it. Miss Wilson, sister of Mrs. Hamilton, has had it, but has recovered.

Mrs. John T. Crampton, of Chestnut street, who recently underwent a severe operation at a Los Angeles hospital, was brought home Sunday. Reports from her home state that she is getting along fairly well, but that she will not be able to receive her friends for some time to come.

The Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross has just accepted a quota of garments to be finished by January 28th, viz.: Twenty-five boys' blouse suits, of which there is urgent need, and needlewomen are asked to report at the work room for service under Mrs. Jodon who is taking the place made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Helen Sadler from the Chairmanship of the Sewing Department.

James W. Pearson, the real estate, loan and insurance agent, has moved to 109 East Broadway, just east of the Pacific Electric station. Mr. Pearson reports the following recent sales: 527 N. Kenwood to F. L. Clemens, of South Dakota; 702 East Harvard to D. R. Denison, of Ventura; 333 West Burchett to Mrs. Annie C. Bassell. Rentals are very active, in fact, the demand is greater than the supply.

Mrs. J. W. Durham, of Elk avenue, reports that her son, Ben Durham, has secured his discharge from active service in the navy, and expects to take up work at the San Pedro shipyards. Her son, Murray Durham, is in France with the Military Police of the 91st Division, and wrote on the 18th of November they had orders to move, but he did not know where, that he expected they would be sent home in the near future. He has been with Ormond Bradley, Will Richardson and other soldiers known here.

Mrs. Flora Pixley, of 116 W. Lomita avenue, has leased her home to Mr. and Mrs. Hayward, of Connecticut for several months, and is moving with her daughter to a cottage they own at Hermosa Beach. She reports that her son, Guy Pixley, writes that his company which is a sanitary train, has been split up and the boys have been sent to different base hospitals. He is at one of the biggest hospitals in France where there are more than 700 buildings. It is a disappointment to the boys to be separated and having accomplished what they went to France to do, they are all anxious to get home. His letters are still censored and he gives few details, but says he will have much to tell when he gets back.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Terry, parents of Miss Abbie C. Terry, teacher of dramatic art in Glendale Union High School, came from their home in Wisconsin in the fall to make their home with their daughter this winter and have become so impressed with California as a place of residence that they have purchased a home in Eagle Rock at 257 Windemere avenue, of which they expect to take possession February 1st. Mr. Terry has been state inspector of High Schools in Wisconsin for 14 years and was granted a year's leave of absence to have this furlough in Southern California.

The Victory Hop given Friday evening by Private John Sharpe, recently discharged from the army, by Gordon Clayton and Bugler George Hastings of the Naval Reserve, proved a very pretty and delightful social affair. The national colors and flags were lavishly used in decoration and music—saxophone, drum, trombone and piano, was furnished by members of the Naval Reserve Band at San Pedro. Needless to say, it was good. Between dances delicious punch was served. About seventy-five couples were present and the affair was chaperoned by Mesdames E. K. Barnes, David Gregg and J. M. Ray. All had a good time and voted to attend the dancing party to be given by Mrs. Pearl Keller next Saturday night.

Clyde L. Thedaker, agent of the Southern Pacific at the Glendale station in the southern part of the city, is down with influenza.

Mrs. Harold Salisbury has received an unique spring bonnet from her husband in the shape of a German helmet which she treasures for the sake of the sender.

J. D. Cole and wife, of North Louise street, are convalescing from serious influenza attacks. They were up Monday and hope to soon be in normal health.

Headquarters of the Associated Charities of Glendale will be open Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock with Mrs. E. S. McKee in charge, when clothing and other comforts will be given out.

On account of the many demands on mothers occasioned by the closing of schools and the influenza epidemic, the meetings of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle which have been held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Toll may be discontinued, for a time. The matter will be determined at the meeting this week.

Ernest Sparr, of the Sparr Fruit Company, reports if the toll goes in to effect between Glendale and Los Angeles that the telephones of the packing house of which he is the head will be removed. He also declares that at least half a dozen families of his acquaintance have informed him they will move to Los Angeles if the toll is established.

Rev. Clifford Cole, of this city, will represent his church at a two-day convention of Christian Churches at Pomona Tuesday and Wednesday and will also be on the program Wednesday for a Sunday School program for six months. It will be of interest to all delegates and will probably provoke considerable discussion. Mr. Cole is chairman of the Sunday School Committee for Southern California.

Mrs. W. D. McRae is rejoicing over the arrival of her brother, Forrest Bates, his wife and child, who reached Glendale Monday from Moline, Michigan, near Grand Rapids. En route to California, they stopped off to have a look at the Salt River Valley near Tempe, Arizona, as Mr. Bates is thinking of locating somewhere in the west. He and Mrs. Bates will be the guest of his sister for the winter months during which they will acquaint themselves with the country and make up their minds where they want to make their home.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Marsh and Mrs. W. D. McRae represented the Glendale Congregational Church at the annual meeting of the Los Angeles Association of Congregational Churches which was held at the First Congregational Church in that city on Monday. It had been postponed three times on account of influenza but proved to be an excellent meeting from the standpoint of program and enthusiasm, though not as well attended as it has been in normal times.

Mrs. A. R. Wade, of Toronto, Canada, is spending a few weeks in Glendale, of which she became enamored after visiting it a time or two. She is here for the health of her little grandson, Edward W. Devlin, who was left in a weakened condition by a severe attack of influenza and for whom a change of climate was recommended by his physician. Mrs. Wade is an accomplished musician, the leader of an orchestra in her home city and has been active in Red Cross and war work, going with her orchestra to the hospitals where the wounded are being cared for and playing for their entertainment. She is making her headquarters at 310 North Jackson street as the paying guest of Mrs. William Thomson.

RETURN OF DR. RALPH LUSBY

The many friends of Dr. Ralph Lusby will rejoice to learn that he has received his honorable discharge from army service and is again a citizen of Glendale, having arrived Sunday night. He has been spending several months in bacteriological work in the laboratory of the big hospital at Fort Oglethorpe, where he was associated with Doctors McFarland and Bergey, both members of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, and with Dr. Heisse, of the Rockefeller Institute. He considers the experience has been invaluable to him. He has also been attending eastern clinics and visiting his brother, Willis E. Lusby, who is an official of the National City Bank of New York. In spite of all these advantages and pleasures he is glad to feel the climate of Southern California and see his home and friends.

WOMAN'S GUILD

The Woman's Guild of St. Mark's Church will meet on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 16th, at Red Cross Headquarters to sew. A large attendance is desired as there is a great deal to do. Any members who are unable to give the afternoon at headquarters are asked to call and take work home.

All members and friends of parish are asked to help in this good work.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORK

The fact that certain departments of work are being dropped in the workrooms of the Red Cross Chapters has in no way diminished the disposition of the government and Red Cross officials to maintain the junior organizations. It is a matter of education, of altruistic responsibility which should be developed in the young. That is the reason they insist that certain work must be done by the children themselves and not by their mothers and teachers. The following outline of the work laid out for junior auxiliaries has been sent out:

January

Campaign to introduce courses in First Aid and Home Nursing in the high schools; beginning by art contest in the schools, from which posters will be selected to accompany the French exhibit in March.

February

Personal health and community sanitation. This program will be arranged so as to cover the months of February, March and April. Part of the class time allowed for hygiene and sanitation should be used. A thirty-two page pamphlet will be in the hands of the teachers by January 20th, in time to prepare the work for February.

March

International Friendship. This will be developed largely in the classes in English, geography and history, and will not interfere with the Health and Sanitation program. A thirty-two page pamphlet will be issued during February in time to be available for preparation for the March program.

April

Agricultural Projects—A very valuable phase of the Junior Red Cross program is the co-operation with the United States School Garden Army. A most important announcement of this will be found elsewhere on this page.

May and June

Red Cross exhibits of foreign lace making, basket weaving, etc., and bulletins.

CARD OF THANKS

The words of sympathy expressed, the beautiful tributes of flowers and the many tokens of appreciation of the character of the dear one who has gone, have aided greatly in helping us to bear the loss we sustained when there passed from earth the beautiful soul of Elizabeth Parker Sherer.

With sincerest appreciation and thanks.

J. C. SHERER,
MRS. HESTER PARKER.

and next year we expect to send twenty million tons, or two-thirds more than we sent last year. A free people who willingly saved to share in the great struggle will gladly save to share in the glorious triumph.

How much we owe unto God, too, for a victorious conclusion of the war! The ringing of the bells on New Year's Eve and the song of the whistles told of the joy that was in millions of hearts and homes. The thunder of guns has been silenced,—the Angel of Peace has descended upon the battle-torn fields of Europe and our boys are coming home.

Personal Mercies: During the year that has passed God has been lavish in the bestowal of the personal mercies of health, strength, food, clothing, sleep, comforts. Examine and pass upon this account and then say, How much owest thou unto my Lord? The ravages of a fearful epidemic has swept over our land and is still in progress, the ravages of a war prosecuted with unexampled cruelty have cut down many loved ones, thousands have lost their lives in railway and other accidents. From almost every point of view it has been an eventful year. We, however, have been mercifully spared and enjoy health, strength, and a good share of the world's goods.

Spiritual Mercies: The crowning mercy is found in the fact that God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

1918 has winged its everlasting flight and while it has left us occasion to mourn it has also left much to be thankful for. O my country! the land of my ministry, whose temple is religion, whose crown is liberty, whose citizens are princes, how much owest thou unto my Lord? O my congregation! The young, the middle-aged, the old, How much owest thou unto my Lord? Do you not answer: "Everything. There is nothing which I have not received from His beneficent hand." In adjusting your accounts forget not the God who created, who preserves, who blesses and who redeems you.

LIBRARY PLANS

portunity that many will welcome to get some acquaintance with current books.

The new arrivals in the library include considerable fiction among which the following are worthy of special mention:

"The Room with the Tassels," a good detective story.

"The Clutch of Circumstance," by Marjorie Benton Cooke, author of "Bambi," which was such a popular book. It is an excellent secret service story.

"The Star in the Window" is a romance by Prouty which introduces the war.

"Heart's Haven," by Clara Louise Burnham is a fine Christian Science story.

"Doctor Danny" is another of Ruth Sawyer's wholesome romances with a good deal of Irish wit in it and some of the same characters who figured in "Herself, Himself and Myself."

"The Golden Bird" is by Marie Thompson Davies, another clean, sweet romance of Harpeth Valley.

"The Magnificent Ambersons" is by Booth Tarkington and has his usual excellent character delineations, having in place of "Penrod" a boy raised in the lap of luxury who has exceptional experiences, but who comes out all right.

"The Heart of a Fool," by William Allen White, is an exceptionally well-written story, strictly for adults, but of great interest.

"The Valley of Giants," by Peter B. Kyne, is a story of the California redwoods carrying with it the smell of the woods. It has also its romance which is clean and can be recommended to any one who enjoys good fiction.

"Georgina's Service Star," by Anna Fellows Johnson, is a sequel to Georgina of the Rainbow, and while a juvenile book is of interest to older readers.

"The Island Mystery" is an intensely interesting story of adventure by Birmingham.

"Lovers of Louisiana" is one of Cable's typical stories of old Creole days in New Orleans.

An exceptionally good political story is "The Crack in the Bell."

"Fire Cracker Jane" is a most entertaining S. O. S. story of adventure.

"The Triumph of John Carrs," by Cullum, has Alaska for its setting and is a book that men enjoy.

Before God—We are Responsible for their Future

THE whitening bones of millions of massacred men, women and children are strewn the plains of Asia Minor from the Black Sea to the Persian Gulf.

In a single day's travel, an American relief worker saw the mutilated corpses of more than five thousand outraged women, piled by the roadside.

Thousands of living babies have been hurled into the rushing tides of the Euphrates, the Tigris and other rivers.

From the town of Harpoot eighteen thousand persons were deported, mostly women and girls. Deported—driven for endless miles over mountains, plains, deserts in bitter cold and parching heat. Their mounted guards, ex-convicts, criminals, ruffians of the lowest order.

At the end of sixty-four days the survivors, one hundred and eighty-five out of the eighteen thousand, staggered into a town hundreds of miles from where they started. Covered only with rags they were shuddering skeletons, half dead of their suffering, half blind with starvation.

Of the others, some died of privation and hardship, some starved to death, some were eaten by wild beasts. God alone knows how the rest came to an end at the hands of worse than wild beasts.

The story of Harpoot is the story of hundreds of towns in the Near East. In wretched groups, the survivors are straggling in from the deserts. Armenians, Syrians, Greeks, Jews, bringing disease, famine, woe as they come.

There are four million of these refugees. They have not even a crust of bread unless we provide it and four hundred thousand of them are orphaned children, little more than babies, helpless, resourceless, hungry. Seventeen cents a day, five dollars a month, sixty dollars a year will keep the breath of life in one of those emaciated bodies.

If this were the end of the story, appeal would be useless. Turko-German fiendishness would make aid almost unavailing.

But these oppressed peoples have been freed from Turkish rule, through the victory of the Allies and America. They need only our help for a little time to re-establish themselves as self-supporting nations.

It will take thirty million dollars to care for their immediate needs in food and clothing, and buy tools, farm implements, seeds, live stock to put them on a self-supporting basis within the year.

This is the work we have to do—to raise that thirty million dollars—and to raise it now before the survivors perish.

For the honor of America we cannot let their misery go unheeded. They have passed through unnameable hells of suffering. We cannot blot out their past. But before God we are responsible for their future—we are responsible for the rebuilding of these races. This is our work. Are you ready?
